(b) if so, the details thereof along with the reasons therefor;

(c) whether the Government has received any representations against such change of court timings;

(d) if so, the action taken thereon by the Government; and

(e) if not, whether the Government proposes to restore the timings of these courts to the original timings and if so, the details thereof?

Answer

MINISTER OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI D.V. SADANANDA GOWDA)

(a) to (e): Under Article 235 of the Constitution of India, the administrative control over district courts and courts subordinate thereto is vested in the High Court. Accordingly, the working days as well as working hours of the District/ Subordinate Courts are regulated by the respective High Court.

Communications/representations received in this regard are, therefore, forwarded to the concerned High Court.
